

Current Inductees

Alumni

George Behrakis—Current member of the Board of Trustees, President of the Board of Directors 1983-84. A member of the team that invented Tylenol in the fifties, George went on to create Muro Pharmaceuticals. He is a noted philanthropist and community leader. He contributed to the construction of the current Club on Middlesex Street, to the endowment campaign, donated the first technology lab at the Club and led a campaign to retire the mortgage and celebrate the Club's 100th Anniversary.

George Demoulas - Chosen to Chair the capital campaign for the building on Middlesex Street shortly before his untimely death in 1971, the current Club on Middlesex Street is named after him. Along with his brother, he led the growth of the Demoulas (now Market Basket) supermarket chain.

Telemachus Demoulas—The longtime president of the Demoulas grocery chain which grew from 15 stores to 57 under his leadership. Made the lead gift and was a major fundraiser in the capital campaign for the building on Middlesex Street as well as a campaign to start an endowment at the Club which has since more than doubled in size. He was well known for his philanthropy., and is credited for revitalizing the Acre neighborhood in Lowell.

William "Billy" King - President of the Board 1984-86, New England Sales Manager for the world's largest chemical company, BASF, later National Accounts Manager for Luzenac. He authored the book "The Acre, 1941-1951" . Mr. King helped lead the fundraising drive for the expansion of the Club on Middlesex Street.

Board/Community Members

Frederic C. Church, Sr. -President of the Board 1923-1937 and a member of the board for 30 years. He successfully guided the Club through 15 years of exceptionally favorable progress—not only through the years of prosperity, but through the years of extreme adversity as well. During the depression, the Lowell insurance icon kept the Club afloat and its doors open to the "street boys" who needed home away from home.

Ray Riddick—President of the Board 1955-57, and a legendary Lowell High athletic coach. The school's field house is named after him. He played college football at Fordham University with Vince Lombardi and the Seven Blocks of Granite and professionally for the Green Bay Packers for one season.

John A. Notini—A former board member, the pool was named after him. He was the General Manager and Treasurer of Notini & Sons.

Former staff

Major Walter Jeyes, Sr.—A Spanish American War Veteran, Major Jeyes was Superintendent of the Club from 1916-1930 and worked for Superintendent Stewart for 3 years prior to that. He led renovations of the Dutton Street Club including moving the showers to the basement and expanding them so 50 boys could use them at once (at the time, it was the only place many kids could bathe) and expanding the Games Rooms. He also created a farming program on Varnum Avenue. His son, Walter Jeyes Jr., followed him as Superintendent from 1930-1958.